

HATHERN is a parish, village, and railway station, three miles from Loughborough; population, 1,120; inhabited houses, 282. The Church, dedicated to St. Peter, is a very ancient building. The living is a Rectory, value £500 per annum. Patron and Rector, the Rev. Edward Smythies, B.A. Letters via Loughborough. Sheepshed is the nearest Money Order office.

Adams William, farmer	Goodacre Samuel, plaster and flour mills, Zouch	Smith Mrs. Elizabeth, baker
Bennett George Augustus Hickinbottom, Esq.	Hanford Edwin, timber dealer	Smith Sidney, carpenter
Burrows Henry, wheelwright	Harriman John & Henry, framesmiths	Smythies Rev. Edwd., The Rectory
Caldwell Edwin, framesmith	Harriman Mrs. Elizabeth, farmer	Swift William, hairworker
Caldwell Edwin, farmer	Hatton Henry Gen. Labon, farmer	Swingler William, farmer
Chambers Robert, market gardener	Hickling Samuel, shoemaker	Taylor William, nailmaker
Chapman George, carpenter	Hickling William, shopkeeper	Twells Henry, plumber
Coddington Joseph, baker	Hunt Thomas, shopkeeper	Vickers Isaac, baker, butcher, and shopkeeper
Cooper John, the Anchor	Long Samuel, bricklayer	Ward William, nailmaker
Cooper John, farmer	Peberdy John, blacksmith	Watts Samuel, framesmith
Cooper William, farmer	Pollard William, farmer	Watts William, baker
Dutton Joseph, butcher	Price Frederick, beer retailer	Wild Edward, shoemaker
Groves Thomas, blacksmith		Wild Thomas, shopkeeper