

HATHERN is a large village and parish, on the borders of Nottinghamshire, 3 miles N.W. of Loughborough, its Union town; containing 1187 inhabitants, and 1292 acres of land. The soil is chiefly fertile clay, and the ground diversified. The living is a rectory, valued at £379, in the patronage of Charles March Phillipps, Esq.; the Rev. E. Smythies, is the incumbent, and has 260 acres of glebe, in lieu of tithes. The Church (St. Peter) is an old building with a square embattled tower, containing five bells. Here are Chapels belonging to the Wesleyans, Wesleyan Reformers, General Baptists, and Primitive Methodists. A handsome School was erected in 1843, at a cost of about £800, partly by subscription and partly by a grant from the Committee of Council on Education. HATHERN CHARITY ESTATE consists of six cottages and gardens, and 18A.

2A. 15P. of land, let for £68 a year; of which the schoolmaster has £10; £5 is laid out in apprenticing poor boys; and the remainder, after paying for repairs, &c., is distributed among the poor parishioners in calico, coals, and flour. The remaining charities amount to about £3. 6s. a year. Charles March Phillipps, Esq., is lord of the manor.
